What to Do When You Can Not Go to Court

1. Don't Ignore Court

Remember your court date and make sure you go to court. If you do not go to court, the police might arrest you.

2. Come to Court on an Earlier Day

If you cannot go to court on the right date, come to court on an earlier day so NAAJA can ask the judge to have your case heard on that day or another day when you can come.

3. Call NAAJA

If you cannot go to court, phone NAAJA before court so NAAJA can ask the judge to change the court date for you. If you have a good reason the judge might change the date.

You can call NAAJA for free on:

Darwin: 1800 898 251
Katherine: 1800 897 728
Nhulunbuy: 1800 022 823

NORTH AUSTRALIAN ABORIGINAL JUSTICE AGENCY

This poster is a community legal education resource of NAAJA | North Australian Aboriginal Justice Agency

Created 1 October 2013.